

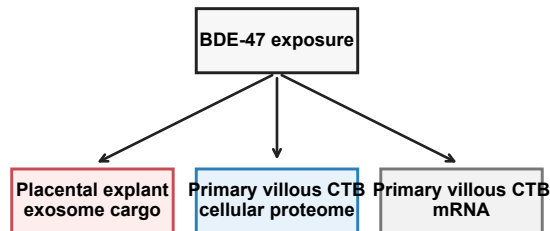

Figure 1. Source-resolved toxicogenomics links CTD signs to placental readouts

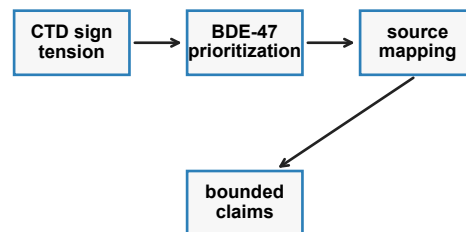

a

Placental readout compartments

b

Source-resolved reconstruction

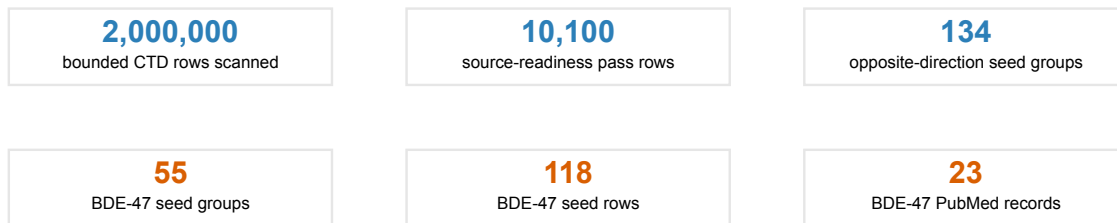

Database signs can compress these readouts into one relation.

CTD locates the problem; primary sources define biology.

c

BDE-47 cluster used as the focused reconstruction object

The cluster is a prioritization scaffold, not a set of independent discoveries.